

Mae'n ddrwg gen i

I'm sorry
How did I not hear that we are different?
It is in the tone and fall and rise
It is in the rhythm and the structure
And the hard and soft of the sounds

I'm sorry
Why did I not speak that we have difference?
It is in the people that you help It is in your literature, title and study
And in your history and experience.

I'm sorry
How did I not recognise where we differ?

But now.....
It will be in the spoken arena
It will be another lens for exploration I will be curious about our difference
Even in the sharing of our sameness.
